Make Love Without War

BIO

Anne Mauro, LMFT, CST, CSE

Anne Mauro is a Licensed Couples and Family therapist, AASECT Certified Sex Therapist, and AASECT Certified Sexuality Educator. She has earned her M.A from Antioch University Seattle (AUS) and a Doctorate of Human Sexuality from the Institute for the Advanced Study of Human Sexuality.

Her private practice, Mending Connections, Washington State, specializes in couples counseling and sex therapy. Anne created and taught a course as adjunct faculty at AUS, where she taught in the Couples and Family Therapy program, the Sexuality Certificate program, and she provided clinical supervision to graduate student interns.

Currently, Anne is adjunct faculty for Council for Relationships in their Sexuality Certificate program. In partnership with a colleague, Anne is also an American Association of Sexuality Educators, Counselors and Therapists (AASECT) continuing education provider. She also serves as the AASECT award committee chair and on the AASECT Ethics Advisory Committee.

Her first publication, More Than Ebony and Ivory: Complexities of sex therapy with interracial couples, can be found in An Intersectional Approach to Sex Therapy: Centering the lives of indigenous, racialized, and people of color.
